Knowledge transfer

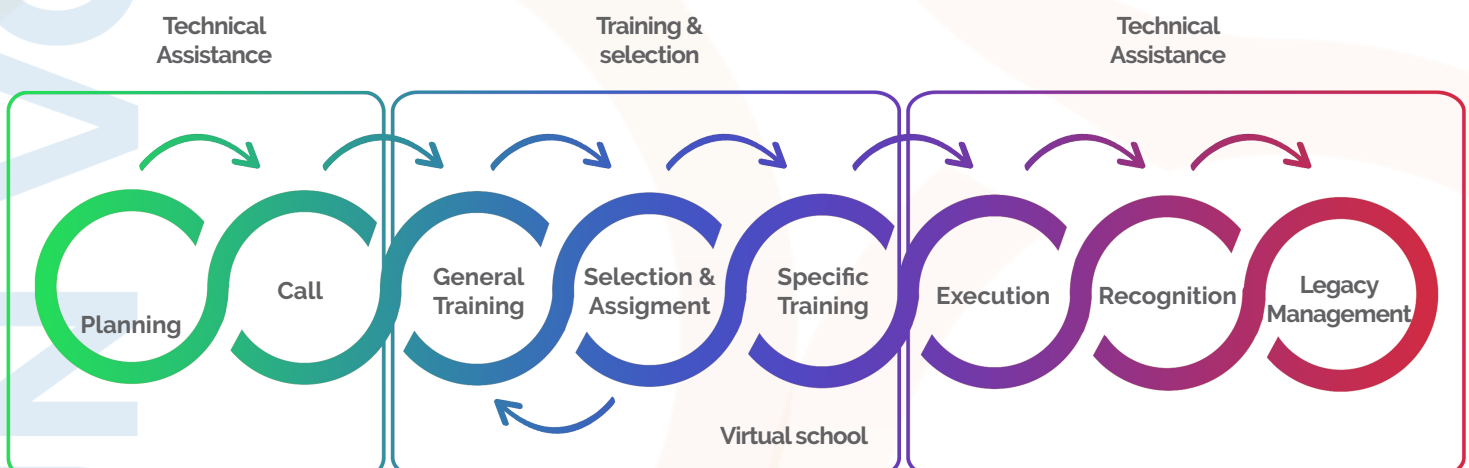

Volunteer management

V4E applies a tested approach covering the whole volunteer cycle to mobilize and manage the short-term event volunteers.

Core Team

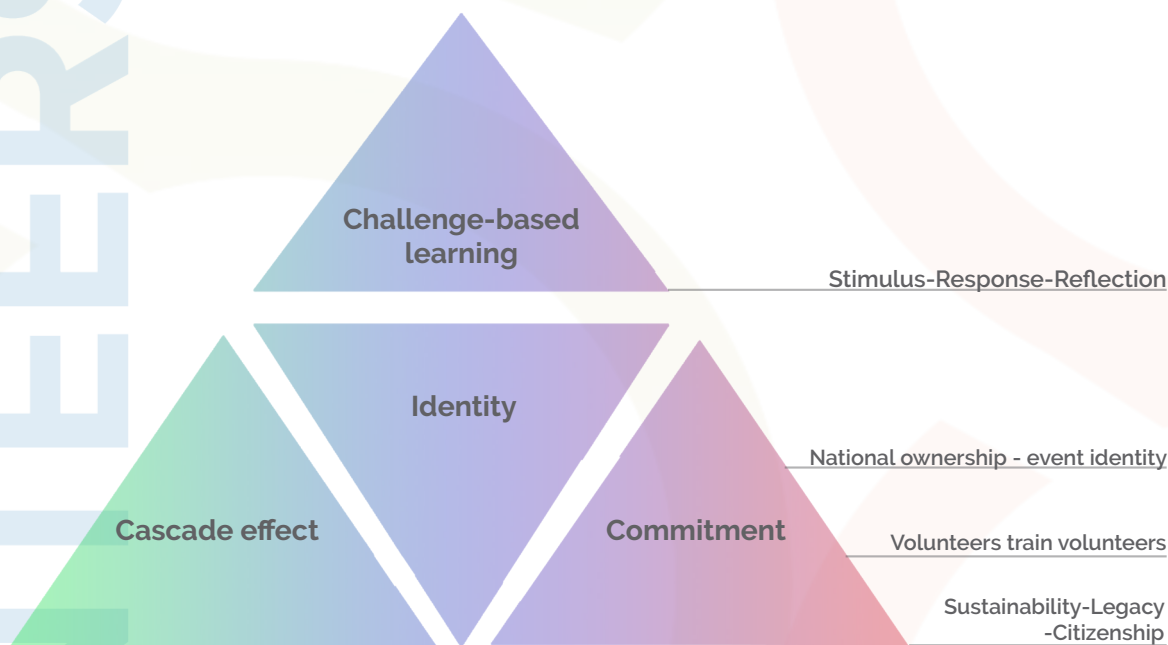

Event Volunteers

You and your team are responsible for the design, development, coordination and implementation of the volunteer management cycle.

Your role is crucial, not only to the planning and smooth implementation of the V4E methodology, but to enhance the Event Volunteers' experience and their contribution to the event, mostly through the training.

The training model is designed around four pillars.

A set of tools are available to help you design and deliver the V4E model of engaging volunteers to support this important event.

- 1 Volunteers for Events Blueprint
- 2 UNV Core Team Onboarding
- 3 Event Volunteers Training Guidelines

Equipped with the instruments and all material provided, you put into practice all your passion, skills, and experience.

Passion

Skills

Experience

You are a fundamental part not only of this event but of the entire community, starting a chain reaction that will lead us to improve as a society. With a small contribution, you can make a big difference, leaving no one behind and promoting the best of everyone.

You and the great team that we have formed play together, innovate, share, and inspire!
